FROM OUR RABBI

Ruth, Women & Jewish Destiny

By Rabbi Ken Brodkin

ur synagogue foyer is the home of a precious relic: the original Aron Kodesh (arc) dedicated at Sons of Israel circa 1920. Atop this historic piece, the words "generous donation of the Daughters of Israel" are engraved.

Throughout history, Jewish women have played a central role in strengthening the Torah, and our Shul is no exception. Now that we are counting the days of the Omer towards the next Chag, it is worthwhile to consider the connection between women and Shavuos.

On Shavuos, we read the Megilla of Ruth. While the presence of Boaz looms large in this short book, our tradition refers to it as the story of Ruth. We don't call it "the book of Boaz!" What's more, in naming the book for the woman, Ruth, we allude to another woman—Naomi—whom Ruth followed and emulated. Is there a deeper meaning to this connection between women and Shavuos?

At the end of Ruth, we discover a hidden theme. All along, we may have thought this Megilla was the story of one woman and how she became a part of the Jewish people. But when Ruth marries Boaz, we learn that Ruth and Boaz, together, become the great

At the time of her move to Israel, Ruth found herself without a "redeemer" with whom she can continue the legacy of her deceased husband. She was alone, a foreigner in a foreign land. She could have easily lost the opportunity to build the heritage she desired. Instead, Ruth developed an elaborate plan whereby she would hint to Boaz that he was to take her as a wife.

On that fateful night, Ruth traversed down to the threshing floor, where she knew Boaz would be working. Boaz discovered her in the middle of the night, and was shocked by her presence. Who are you? he asked. Ruth's response is riveting:

I am Ruth your maidservant and you shall cast your robe upon your maidservant for you are a redeemer... (Ruth 3, 9)

This is an amazing sequence. Boaz—the man of wealth and power—asks who she is. Ruth not only tells him her identity. She informs him of his own identity, telling him that he is a redeemer. What's more, she commands him to marry her and "cast his robe upon her." In this light, we can appreciate that Ruth was not merely seducing Boaz, though the passage is not devoid of sexual suggestion. Rather, Ruth was guiding Boaz toward this great mission. She was taking decisive action that would shape the Jewish future.

Shavuos is a time that we receive the Torah. The Kingship of Israel is closely linked to the Torah, for the Kings were responsible to guide the nation in its connection to God. The Book of Ruth highlights the role of the woman, Ruth, in bringing Torah to the Jewish people.

Ruth had every right to feel like she was marginal. Not only was she a foreigner, but she was a woman in a patriarchal, agrarian society. Observers in her time would have considered her a minor figure in comparison with the prominent Boaz. Yet, Jewish tradition considers Ruth the defining figure. Great as Boaz was, it was Ruth who moved him with her words to fulfill his true potential as a redeemer.

During the coming Chag, we will travel back in time to the fields of Beit Lechem as we meet Naomi, Ruth, and Boaz. As we take this journey, we reflect on how millenia ago our tradition pointed to a female hand guiding Jewish destiny. For all of us—male or female—we should become emboldened in our own lives to take decisive action, even when we feel like we are marginal.

This Shavuos, may we use the resources at our disposal to strengthen the Torah in our own lives and in the lives of all those around us.

MEN'S CLUB HAPPENINGS

By Michael Katz, President

hope everyone enjoyed Passover and celebrated with family and friends.

We're looking forward to attending the Somerset Patriots vs the Binghamton Rumble Ponies on Sunday, May 7. If anyone is still interested in attending, please contact me for last minute tickets.

We're planning on a paid up members special event. Details will be forthcoming.

We are always looking for ideas and topics for future programs. Please contact me about programs you'd like us to consider having.

We are looking for men who would like to be trustees for the Men's Club. Please contact me at katzfamily4@aol.com if you are interested in joining our board.

When you look at the Men's Club wall in the main entranceway, you will see a special "Men of Distinction" section. As many of us have honored the special women in our lives with inclusion on the "Women of Valor" wall, the Men's Club would like you to honor those special men in your life with a plaque in the "Men of Distinction" section. The cost is $250 for this special honor.

MEN'S CLUB "MEN OF DISTINCTION"

IS YOUR HUSBAND, SON, FATHER, GRANDFATHER, OR ANY OTHER SPECIAL MAN IN YOUR LIFE DESERVING OF SPECIAL RECOGNITION? IF YOUR ANSWER IS YES, AS WELL IT SHOULD BE, THERE IS A WAY FOR YOU TO HONOR THAT SPECIAL MAN OR MEN, IN YOUR LIFE, AND AT THE SAME TIME, ASSIST THE MEN'S CLUB IN ITS FUND RAISING ACTIVITIES.

AS YOU MAY HAVE NOTICED. ONE WALL IN OUR SYNAGOGUE LOBBY IS DEDICATED TO THE MEN'S CLUB. ONE SECTION OF THAT DISPLAY IS SET ASIDE FOR "MEN OF DISTINCTION", SIMILAR TO THE SISTERHOOD'S "WOMEN OF VALOR". YOU CAN HONOR THE MAN, OR MEN, IN YOUR LIFE BY PLACING HIS NAME ON WHAT, WE HOPE, WILL BE A GROWING LIST. THE COST FOR THE BRASS PLAQUE IS $150 FOR A LIFETIME OF HONOR.

THE MEN'S CLUB HAS BEEN RAISING FUNDS IN A VARIETY OF WAYS SINCE ITS INCEPTION 35 YEARS AGO. DURING THAT TIME, WE HAVE CONTRIBUTED OVER $100,000 TO THE SYNAGOGUE FOR CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS. IN ADDITION, WE HAVE DONATED OVER $50,000 TO JEWISH AND OTHER CHARITIES $250 HAVE PROVIDED ONGOING FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO YOUTH ACTIVITIES.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION REGARDING THE "MEN OF DISTINCTION" HONOR ROLL. PLEASE CALL THE SYNAGOGUE OFFICE OR MICHAEL KATZ @732-792-1096.

The next Sisterhood book chat will be "All the Broken Places," by John Boyne, on Tuesday, June 20 at 7:15 p.m.

Sisterhood Scoop

By Donna Fassman

Those April showers have finally brought us some May flowers. Spring is now in the air all around us and the sun seems a little brighter. I don't think this is a phenomenon of nature but just a visual and emotional perspective on my part and I hope on yours as well. Now that the warmer weather is upon us we are happy to see many more smiling faces at our Sisterhood events.

On April 17th, our Sisterhood open board meeting was met with much enthusiasm as many came to help brainstorm ideas for upcoming events and ways to make our Sisterhood stronger. Please continue to help support Sisterhood by joining us at our programs, helping out on a committee, or coming up with a new idea. We need new insight, vision, and help for us to remain strong and grow.

As of this writing, we are looking forward to our program on April 27th featuring Eleanor Reissa who wrote The Letters Project. We are excitedly anticipating her discussion about her book writing journey and her riveting personal revelations.

Please watch your emails for our closing Sisterhood program "Health and Zen," on June 11th, where we will all be guided in chair yoga along with a healthy and yummy brunch. Please RSVP to Allison in the office for this wonderful event.

Now, as we count the days of the Omer leading up to Shavuot, we find ourselves on another spiritual journey, where we commemorate an uplifting time of receiving the Torah, bringing us a sense of renewal and growth. Let's take this time to smell those roses and feel the warmth of the sun on our faces as we hope to grow our own individual spirits.

My parting wish is: May your *cheesecakes be creamy and sweet, and may your spirits continue to grow. I look forward to seeing you all soon.

Fondly, Mindy, Vickie, Rochelle & Donna
