JOIN US SUNDAY, MAY 19, 2024 AT 11AM TO CELEBRATE
OUR COUPLE OF THE YEAR: SHARON & VIC SCHIOPPO
– WATCH FOR INVITES IN THE MAIL

SHARON SCHIOPPO

Sharon was born the third of four daughters to Sophie and Ben Lipsker, an extremely close-knit modern orthodox family. This dynamic was part of Sharon's upbringing and throughout the years she has embraced the traditions of a Jewish life. As she grew up in Brooklyn, Sharon learned that there was nothing that could compare to the strong bonds she maintained with her sisters, her parents, as well as Babi and Zaide.

The family had moved from Bensonhurst to Mill Basin in Brooklyn and became active members of the Orthodox environment of Flatbush Park Jewish Center. After graduating from James Madison High School, Sharon was accepted to and graduated as a Medical Assistant from the Manhattan Medical School. Upon completion of the program she was hired (at the tender age of 20) by Dr. Alvin Mund in New York City. As luck would have it, Dr. Mund was observant of the Sabbath and all Jewish holidays. It was the perfect fit for Sharon. It allowed her to be home from work prior to sundown on Friday, and she was able to enjoy all of the many, many Jewish holidays with her family. Sharon worked with Dr. Mund for 19 years and her relationship with him lasted throughout his life until his passing.

In the late 1970's, Sharon's family began the migration from Brooklyn to New Jersey. First, her sister Gail moved to Marlboro in 1976. Then, her sister Faye and her family together with her mother and Babi made the move. In 1980, they built and purchased a home at 2 Cooperhawk Drive in Manalapan, New Jersey. They chose this location due to its proximity to Congregation Sons of Israel. Finally, Sharon's third sister Shelly and her husband Ed moved to Old Bridge New Jersey in January 1981.

During this same time period, Sharon had met Vic Schioppo. Their mutual love of music (especially Johnny Mathis) as well as their love of listening and dancing to Latin music drew them together. The relationship flourished and Vic converted to Judaism in 1981. They were married on September 20, 1981 with the ceremony and reception held in a beautiful tent on the Cooperhawk Drive property. Vic and Sharon followed all of her family by moving to Old Bridge, New Jersey in 1981 and then to Manalapan in 1987.

As a result of her marriage to Vic, Sharon became the proud stepmother to Vic's sons, Richard and Craig. Vic and Sharon have remained an active part of their lives. Richard and his wife Kristin and Craig and his wife Renni have made Sharon grandmother to five wonderful and loving children: Scarlett and Luke; and Jordyn, Madison and Dylan. In 1985, Brandon was born to Sharon and Vic, and this completed the picture and filled their lives and their home with excitement and joy. Sharon is so proud of her family.

Throughout the many years, the home at 2 Cooperhawk Drive became the center for sharing all Jewish Holidays. Sharon and Vic together with her sister Shelly, husband Ed and all their children would "sleepover". This would enable everyone to walk to services at Congregation Sons of Israel. Vic and Sharon joined the congregation, celebrated Brandon's Bar Mitzvah there, and have been active members up to today. Sharon became and still is a member of the Congregation's Sisterhood group "Daughters of Israel". Throughout the years, Sharon never hesitated to volunteer her time, energy and talents. Her artistic flair is evident to all who have attended our many social functions and have seen her creative centerpieces and beautiful table decorations. Recently, she has become active in providing our weekly Shabbos Kiddush. Together with fellow congregants Shari Tepper and the Faermans, Sharon gathers, prepares, and displays our delightful weekly luncheon spread.

Through the years, Sharon and Vic's home has become the gathering place for many family holiday party and events. Being one of four sisters has given Sharon the added bonus of being a beloved aunt, as well as great-aunt. "Aunt Sharon's" home continues to be 'the place to be' on many festive occasions. Together with children, grandchildren, sisters, nieces, nephews, with their husband, wives, and all of their children, having 40 to 50 guests at her Chanukah party is an annual event anticipated by all. Sharon fills the house with the aroma of latkes and her other special treats.

And now, Sharon is proud and honored to be among the group of special women chosen by the Sisterhood who have received the honor of being named "Woman of Valor". It is an especially sweet moment that she is receiving this honor and sharing this special day at the same time her husband Vic has been chosen "Man of the Year".

VIC SCHIOPPO

On Sunday September 20, 1981, Vic Schioppo married Sharon Lipsker. The wedding ceremony and festive party were held in a beautiful tent on the back lawn of 2 Cooperhawk Drive, Manalapan, New Jersey. This was the home of Sharon's mother and sister who had moved from Brooklyn and built this home due to its proximity to Congregation Sons of Israel.

Upon meeting Sharon, Vic converted and embraced Judaism. He will always tell everyone that it was the beginning of his new life and the creation of the "Vic" you all know today. From that moment on, Vic and Sharon attended and became members of Congregation Sons of Israel. Through the years, the Congregation became part of their daily lives. Starting with their son Brandon's Hebrew education and Bar Mitzvah, they became active in many of the Congregation's religious and social activities.

Vic retired from 45 years in the business world in 2017 and he redirected his time, energy, and experience to the congregation as its volunteer Executive Director, a position he holds to this day.

Born Vincent Anthony Schioppo in July 1943, "Vic" was raised in Brooklyn by his Italian parents. His dad, Jim, was a bar tender and his mother, Margaret, was a cashier. Throughout Vic's youth, they stressed the importance of higher education in order to be successful. Vic followed their direction and he graduated from St. John's University in June 1964 with a Bachelor's Degree in Economics. Within days of his graduation, Vic enlisted in the United States Marine Corps. Through active and reserve duty, Vic remained in the Marines until September 1970. Vic further received a Master's Degree in Finance from Baruch College in 1985.

In addition to his career in the business world, Vic, throughout the years and even up to today, has remained an active musician, and entertainer. His earnings as a "wedding singer" back in the sixties and seventies helped to fund his education costs. Today, with a smile on his face, Vic makes the statement that "in the sixties and seventies, many of my fans and audiences were on drugs; now they are on medication"!

As a result of a previous marriage, Vic was blessed with two sons, Richard and Craig. Throughout the years, Vic and Sharon have been actively involved with all facets of the lives of Richard and his wife Kristin, as well as with Craig and his wife Renni. Richard and Kristen have teen age twins, Scarlett and Luke. Craig and Renni have two young adult daughters, Jordyn and Madison, and a teenage son, Dylan. When their son Brandon arrived in 1985, the family picture was complete. Throughout the years, the "blending and togetherness" of this family has given Vic his ultimate rewards.

With heartfelt gratitude to the Men's Club, Vic graciously and proudly accepts being chosen "Man of the Year". He also extends his thanks to Rabbi Ken Broken, to Rabbi Robert Pilavin, as well as to the many, many congregants who over the years have accepted him as a friend.
